Argentina's capital is certainly the most European of South American cities. Its wide avenues and buildings are very European in style. Buenos Aires is a dynamic metropolis with an amazing historical and cultural wealth. Palermo is the most attractive part of the city being less dense and having many green areas. Head to the Parque Tres de Febrero, the largest public garden in the capital and a haven of peace in the heart of the city.

Buenos Aires is an ideal starting point to go on towards the Pampas, Patagonia or north to the Bolivian border.
