Broome is in the west of Kimberley and has about 16 000 inhabitants. It is known as one of the world's capitals of pearl diving. Broome holds many surprises! Visit Chinatown where you will find small, interesting shops with nice jewellery, beads, curios and souvenirs. Don't miss Sun Pictures where films are screened in the oldest outdoor cinema in the world. Visit Gantheaume Point where you can see a dinosaur footprint and admire the view of Cable Beach and the Indian Ocean. Moreover, go for a swim at Cable Beach and enjoy its fine, white sand fringed by turquoise water making it one of the best beaches on the continent.
