

+33 (0) 1 40 71 10 20 From Belgium : 0 800 77 163 From Switzerland : 0 800 56 33 79 Monday to Friday from 9am to 7.30pm Email : contact@campingcar-online.com Site : www.campingcar-online.com

Halifax

Halifax, the capital of Nova Scotia, is a perfect starting point for exploring Atlantic Canada. With CampingCar?Online, you can rent a motorhome (Class C RV), a campervan (Profile Class B), or a 4x4 truck camper to discover Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island at your own pace.

The city itself is rich in maritime history, with highlights such as the Halifax Citadel, the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic, and a lively waterfront. From here, you can set off on scenic drives along the Cabot Trail, explore Kejimkujik National Park, or cross the Confederation Bridge to Prince Edward Island.

Why Start Your Road Trip in Halifax?

- Gateway to Atlantic Canada: Easy access to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and PEI.
- Flexible vehicle options: Choose from motorhomes, campervans, or 4x4 truck campers.
- Convenient access: Halifax Stanfield International Airport connects directly to your rental station.
- Cultural charm: A vibrant city worth exploring before hitting the road. For inspiration on local events and attractions, visit the Official Nova Scotia tourism site.

Vehicles Available in Halifax

Vehicle Type	Capacity	Key Features	Best For
Motorhomes (Class C RVs)	2–7 people	Shower, toilet, kitchen, beds	Families or groups seeking comfo
Campervan (Class B)	2 people	Compact, easy to drive, with shower/toilet	Couples or friends wanting flexibil
4x4 Truck Camper	2-4 people	Separate cab + living unit, rugged and versatile	Adventurers exploring beyond par

Practical Travel Info from Halifax

- Roads & driving: Nova Scotia's roads are well?maintained and ideal for motorhome or campervan travel.
- Campgrounds: Provincial and national parks offer spacious, affordable sites. Book ahead for summer and long weekends.
- Best season: May to October is ideal. The Fall (mid?September to mid?October) offers stunning colors and fewer crowds.
- Distances: Halifax to Kejimkujik National Park ~170 km; Halifax to Prince Edward Island ~300 km. For more details on driving distances and road conditions, see our travel advice for Canada
- Provincial and national parks offer spacious sites you can find parks and campsites directly on Parks Canada.

FAQ – Motorhome & Campervan Rental in Halifax

Can I pick up my motorhome directly in Halifax? Yes, rental stations are located near the city and airport for easy access.

Are one?way rentals possible from Halifax? Yes, you can often return your vehicle in another Canadian city (Toronto, Montreal or even, Calgary, Vancouver). Check availability when booking.

Do I need a special license to drive a motorhome in Canada? No — a standard driver's license is sufficient for most rentals.

Is fuel cheaper in Halifax than in Europe? Yes — Canadian gasoline is typically 25–40% cheaper than in Europe, making road trips more affordable. Its important to understand the cost of fuel and fuel efficiency to budget correctly for

Rent a motorhome, van or 4x4 from Halifax today

Halifax is a strategic starting point for exploring Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island. With CampingCar-Online, you have a wide choice of vehicles—from motorhomes (Class C RVs) to campervans (Class B profilés) and 4x4 pop-top campers—to travel in complete freedom. Book now and enjoy an unforgettable road trip in Atlantic Canada.

? Request your free, fast online quote ? Or schedule a free call with one of our expert advisors