

Mont Tremblant National Park

Explore Mont Tremblant National Park during your motorhome holiday

Located northwest of Montreal, the Laurentian Mountains are a paradise of relaxation and excitement for the whole family. Be sure to visit the Mont Tremblant National Park.

In your motorhome you can explore the wonders of the Quebec region, particularly the Laurentian Mountains. The Mont Tremblant National Park is the first park in Quebec and offers many sports and leisure activities, such as hiking, golfing and skiing. Mont Tremblant is one of the most popular ski areas in the province.

You can visit Mont Tremblant village situated between Lake Tremblant and Lake Mercier where sailing, canoeing and golf await you. Take the opportunity to explore the Mont Tremblant National Park by hiking and enjoying its natural beauty. You will be amazed at the variety of trees in the park, such as beech, oak, fir and birch. The fauna and flora are very diverse and you may even cross paths with a deer or a beaver.

If you would like to ski, you can enjoy the slopes of the Mont Tremblant ski station.

There are a number of campsites in the park where you can then enjoy this wonderful nature.
