Calama is a very arid mining town in the Atacama Desert on the banks of the Loa River, the longest river in the country. Despite the desert environment Calama is dotted with many lovely gardens thanks to the Loa River. Enjoy the historic buildings of the city on foot, the copper statue of a miner and the warm atmosphere. Visit the Chuquicamata mine, one of the largest open pit copper mines in the world, for a great experience. You can also visit the abandoned town of Chuquicamata. The area boasts outstanding natural sites such as the Valley of the Moon, the Poruna Volcano and the Puritama mineral springs.
