Puerto Natales is situated in the extreme south of Chile and gives almost direct access to the famous Torres del Paine National Park. Puerto Natales is a charming town with much to offer, including great food. Along Senoret Canal you can enjoy watching black necked swans and splendid sunsets. You can also visit Milodon Cave, where the remains of a large, extinct mammal (a milodon) from more than 10 000 years ago were discovered. Dorotea Hill offers an impressive panoramic view of the city and fjords. The Torres del Paine National Park is 100 km from Puerto Natales and contains the most fascinating landscapes of Patagonia, such as the famous Paine Towers.
