The British culture

Birthplace of Shakespeare and the Beatles and world-famous royal family, England is a rich country to visit. There is no better way to explore this country than by motorhome.

At the head of this monarchy, Queen Elizabeth II resides in London in Buckingham Palace. Highly appreciated by the British, the Queen is admired for her commitment and dedication. The family expanded with the birth of George, Charlotte and Louis, children of Kate and William.

A stop in London and you can watch the changing of the guard in front of Buckingham Palace. A 30 minute drive away is Windsor Castle which you can visit with your family. On a different note, you can see the famous photo of the Beatles while strolling along Abbey Road.

Following in Shakespeare's footsteps, you can discover his birthplace, and improve your understanding of his works and life with the help of specialist guides.

Culinary specialities

What could be better than enjoying an English Breakfast? Bacon, eggs, baked beans, all accompanied by tea or coffee. This typical breakfast is served in every café and restaurant in the country.

In the port cities, let yourself be tempted by a fish and chips prepared with fresh fish accompanied by a glass of wine or beer.

At tea time, let yourself be tempted by British cream tea and scones, typical cakes to be eaten plain or with fruit.
