

Between Normandy and Brittany

Between Normandy and Brittany

The cliffs of Etretat or the beach of Deauville are as many different panoramas that Normandy offers you. There is no better way to discover this region than by motorhome.

You can visit Etretat and its breathtaking cliffs during a walk or at sea, by renting a paddle. At the bend of a typical village, you will taste an AOC Camembert accompanied by a glass of local spirit: Calvados.

A stop in Deauville with its world-famous multicoloured parasols will plunge you into the atmosphere of the glitter and the American Film Festival

In a completely different setting, you can recharge your batteries in the Cotentin, enjoy a bike ride or a night under the stars.

Less than 2 hours away, you will see the bay of Mont-Saint Michel. This abbey, classified as a UNESCO world heritage site, is accessible on foot. This excellent walk will allow you to discover the quicksand and the flora present in the surroundings.

By extending your trip, you can make a stop in Saint-Malo. This incredible corsair city is distinguished by its ramparts offering a view of Dinard and its emerald coast. Tomb of Chateaubriand, the Grand Bé is accessible on foot at low tide. By taking a river shuttle, you can visit Dinard and taste a buckwheat cake with cider. Along the coast, you will discover Perros Guirec with its crystalline waters and pink rocks.