

Wine-growing regions

The wine-growing regions

Between Bordeaux, Champagne Ardennes or passing through the Beaujolais region, travel through France in your motorhome or van in order to discover the different wine regions.

The Bordeaux region is an excellent starting point for visiting the coveted Château Margaux estate. You can take a boat trip to discover the Gironde estuary.

A stopover in the Beaujolais region will allow you to discover the vineyards in an unusual way during a treasure hunt or a gyropod ride through the vineyards.

Less than two hours drive away is Bourgogne, its vineyards and the city of Dijon which you can visit with your family. Finally, you can visit the Champagne-Ardennes region and its capital of champagne: Epernay. In addition, you can visit the cathedral of Reims or take a boat trip on the river Meuse.