

Camino de Santiago - The Way of St James

The way of Saint-James

Departing from Vierzon, passing through Aveyron or Mont de Marsan, the Way of Saint James is ideal for discovering different regions of France.

You can take some of these stages aboard your motor home.

What could be better than discovering the Aveyron on foot? At the turn of a stage, you will taste the culinary speciality of the region: aligot. In addition, the town of Millau and its emblematic viaduct will welcome you with a canoe trip to admire it in a different way.

Would you like to know all the secrets of Roquefort cheese making? A visit to the cellars is offered from December to July in the south of Aveyron.

A stop at Mont de Marsan and its unmissable Feria will plunge you into the warm atmosphere of the South West and let yourself be tempted by a slice of local foie gras. World-famous for its Bayonne ham, the Pays Basque welcomes you according to its seasons and its waves, ideal for a surfing lesson!

You can also follow the path, stop in Bordeaux to enjoy a tasty Bordeaux wine accompanied by a visit to a local vineyard or climb the Dune du Pilat.
