Rethymno is situated in Crete on the north coast and is rich in history and interesting architecture. It is an old Venetian town and many of the buildings date from the 16th century and are well preserved. Both European and Moorish influences can be seen in the monolithic Fortezza, Byzantine and Venetian churches, mosques, Turkish fountains and its picturesque alleys. The small, colourful Venetian port is lovely for a stroll.

CampingCar-Online/Ramble Campervans offers motorhome and camping car rentals in Rethymno. After viewing the neoclassical mansions and the charming Venetian houses you can leave the city to explore the surrounding regions and their charming, welcoming villages.
