

Kofu

Kofu

Kofu located in central Japan, the capital of Yamanashi Prefecture was once home to Takeda Shingen, one of the strongest commanders in Japan's history. Discover the greatest Samurai on your motorhome holiday rental in Japan. Home to Shosenkyo Gorge, one of the most beautiful gorges in Japan, Kofu is a great addition to your RV tour of Japan.

It is easy to travel in your motorhome or campervan to visit the many historic onsen (hot springs) located at Yumura Onsen village . Explore the side streets and you will discover interesting street food, extraordinary Japanese wine, and try the Hoto & Ozra!

Surrounded by mountains and receiving large amounts of sunshine, Kofu is the birthplace of Japanese wine. You can tour japanese vineyards in your RV or motorhome. Enjoy a wine tour and tasting as you tour the countryside dense with vines, with your campervan you can live at your own pace.

The Shingen-Ko Matsuri festival is the largest Samurai parade in Japan, held each April it commemorates Tadede's life, Samurai spirit and heroes past. In 2014 it entered the Guinness world record for the largest gathering of Samurai.