Kyoto

Koyoto “capital city” was once the capital of Japan, located on the island of Honshu this city delights with many classical buddhist temples, shinto shrines, and also impressive gardens and imperial palaces. On your RV or motorhome tour of Japan Kyoto is a must see. With campgrounds located outside the city you can use the efficient transport system to explore on foot or by bike.

Kyoto was the seat of imperial power for eleven centuries until 1869, when the court was moved to Tokyo. With many small traditional wooden houses it is a delight to wander the small streets and travel back in time. Kyoto is home to formal Japanese traditions such as geisha and Kaiseki dining.

A great addition to your RV tour of Japan Kyoto is easy to travel in your motorhome or campervan. You will discover so much on your motorhome tour of Kyoto prefecture.
