

Fun and adventure in a motorhome in Netherlands

Fun and adventure on your Netherlands motorhome holiday.

The Netherlands is packed full of fun adventures for couples, families and adrenaline hunters. With your motorhome or campervan rental you can live close to the heart of the action.

Lego has a place in many children's hearts and also big kids too; The Netherlands is home to Legoland a magical playground dedicated to all things Lego. Ideal for a day trip on your motorhome tour you will experience Lego on a totally different scale from those small bricks you played with as a child. With almost infinite possibilities this great Dutch invention has been fascinatin.

Add another mode of transport to your motorhome rental holiday and view the Netherlands from up high in the sky with a tour in airplane. Not for the faint hearted, this adrenaline fueled small airplane adventure will allow you to marvel at the fields of tulips as if they were brush strokes. Cruise down the coast marvelling at the dunes and long sand beaches deciding on when to roll next in your trusty home on four wheels. An airplane tour of The Netherlands is sure to be a highlight of your motorhome or campervan holiday.
