Auckland is built on the remains of some 50 dormant volcanoes that stretch across a narrow isthmus between the Pacific Ocean and the Sea of Tasmania - the beach and the bush are right there! With a population of over one million, Auckland is the largest city and the most cosmopolitan in New Zealand. It is a major commercial and industrial centre, and also offers a range of cultural and sporting activities.

Be sure to visit the Auckland Zoo and the Auckland Domain and Museum where there is much to learn. You can also visit Kelly Torton's Antarctic Encounter & Underwater World.
