Stavanger is situated in the extreme southwest of the country with industries in canning and oil. It remains open to the sea with its old port and fish market. The old port is charming with good restaurants. At Torget, the market square, you will find fresh seafood and fish caught that day from the sea, lakes and fjords.

The old Valberget neighborhood located on a hill is a very nice area where you can stroll through the pedestrian streets between colourful, wooden houses. If you want to have a panoramic view of the city climb to the top of the Valberg Tower, built in 1850. The old Stavanger area, Stavanger Gamle, is absolutely picturesque. The white wooden houses have been preserved since the late 18th century. Cathedral Stavanger Domkirke is a beautiful building built in 1125. In Øvre Strandgate visit the Norsk Oljemuseum Museum.
