The capital of the Algarve region is definitely the most calm and charming town in the area. Faro is distinguished by its picturesque coastline, and stands out from other seaside locations due to its well defined old town, surrounded by Roman ramparts and historic facades. There are monuments a-plenty, and it is truly in Faro where one can discover ancient ruins and signs of the Moorish and Roman occupations of the past.

In Faro one can find not only the gastronomic specialties of the region, but also the typical plates that mark its varied past.

Just several kilometers from the city is a sprawling sand beach perfect for mingling with the locals.

From Faro, the rest of the Algarve region is rather easy to access. While exploring the area, don't miss a visit to the Rio Formosa Natural Park, home to hundreds of species of birds depending on the migration season (spring and autumn).

CampingCar-Online/Ramble Campervans has vehicles available for rent in Faro, a city of great cultural richness, architecture, and cuisine. The region of Algarve is well known for its pleasant climate and must-see beaches.
