Lugo is situated in the northwest of Spain in the heart of Galicia. It is a small town with a rich historical heritage and has many ruins from the Roman civilization. The Roman Walls of Lugo are a perfect example and certainly the most impressive, being over 2 km long. They surround the city and are well preserved. They were classified a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2000. You can enjoy stunning views and wide panoramas from one of the wall's 85 towers. Behind this ancient wall Lugo is a charming old town with pretty, quiet pedestrian streets, wide squares, large gardens and good restaurants.
