Tarragona is a small town in the northeast of Spain which contains 2000 years of history. Many well preserved Roman ruins can be seen in the lanes of the medieval old town. Tarragona was classified in as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2000. Some places of interest include the Roman circus, one of the best preserved buildings; the Roman Amphitheatre overlooking the sea and home to the remains of a Roman church; the "Passeig Arqueològic" and the Archaeological Museum; the imposing, beautiful Cathedral; the Balcony of the Mediterranean; the Central market and El Serrallo, the fishing district. The beaches in the area have fine, golden sand and are good for swimming and pleasant walks.

CampingCar-Online/Ramble Campervans offers motorhome rentals in Tarragona.
