

Explore the USA by Motorhome or RV for the 2026 Football & Soccer World Cup

Explore the USA by Motorhome, Camping-Car, or “RV” for the 2026 Football World Cup

The 2026 FIFA World Cup is set to be an unforgettable event, with matches hosted across 11 iconic cities in the United States. Explore & experience the excitement with a road trip by motorhome or “RV” as Americans say. There's no better way to experience the tournament than in true Americana style—by hitting the road in a motorhome, camping-car, or RV as true American road trippers call it. This uniquely American mode of travel lets you soak up the Americana culture, explore its jaw-dropping landscapes, and celebrate football (or as Americans insist, soccer) like a local.

The Great American Road Trip: A National Treasure

If there's one thing that screams “USA,” it's the legendary road trip. Picture yourself cruising along Route 66 or through the sprawling highways of Texas, passing roadside diners, quirky attractions, and majestic national parks. Traveling by RV (or camping-car for you Europeans & motorhome for you Brits!) lets you embrace the spirit of freedom and adventure that defines American culture.

Why Choose a Motorhome, Campervan, or RV for the 2026 Football World Cup?

Traveling by motorhome or RV allows you to combine the thrill of the World Cup with the serenity of nature. Imagine waking up to the sound of birds in a national park, then driving to a stadium to cheer for your favorite team. With the convenience of a mobile home, you can enjoy the best of both worlds—urban excitement and natural beauty.

Host Cities and Their American Charm

The World Cup will be hosted in 11 cities across the USA, each offering its own distinct flavor of American culture along with access to nearby natural treasures:

1. Seattle, Washington - A hub of tech innovation, grunge music roots, and coffee culture. Just a short drive away, you can explore Olympic National Park with its misty rainforests, rugged coastline, and dramatic mountain ranges.
2. San Francisco Bay Area, California - Cross the Golden Gate Bridge and feel the creativity that defines this coastal gem. Nearby, Yosemite National Park beckons with its giant sequoias and awe-inspiring granite cliffs like El Capitan.
3. Los Angeles, California - The entertainment capital of the world, paired with sunny beaches and cultural diversity. Escape the city to Joshua Tree National Park, where unique desert landscapes meet star-studded night skies.
4. Dallas, Texas - Dive into cowboy culture, larger-than-life attractions, and hearty Tex-Mex cuisine. From here, venture to Big Bend National Park to marvel at the rugged beauty of canyons and the Rio Grande.
5. Houston, Texas - Explore NASA's Space Center and enjoy the city's multicultural energy. Drive out to Brazos Bend State Park for a Texan wildlife experience, or head to the Gulf Coast for stunning beach views.
6. Kansas City, Missouri - Famous for BBQ and jazz, it's a city full of warmth and Midwestern spirit. A drive to the nearby Ozarks offers serene lakes, forested hills, and charming small towns.
7. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania - The birthplace of American independence with the Liberty Bell and Philly cheesesteaks. Nearby, you'll find the Pocono Mountains, perfect for hiking, fishing, and outdoor relaxation.
8. Atlanta, Georgia - A city that embodies Southern hospitality with bustling nightlife and verdant parks. Explore the lush scenery of the Blue Ridge Mountains, where you can hike trails surrounded by breathtaking views.
9. Miami, Florida - Tropical vibes meet vibrant Cuban-American culture. Just a short trip away, the Everglades National Park offers unique swampy ecosystems, airboat rides, and opportunities to spot alligators.
10. Boston, Massachusetts - Rich in colonial history, with cobblestone streets and a thriving harbor. Acadia National Park, located in Maine, is worth the drive for its dramatic cliffs, forested trails, and Atlantic coastlines.

11. New York/New Jersey - The heartbeat of the USA, blending skyscrapers with suburban charm in New Jersey. Head to the Catskills for waterfalls, mountain trails, and the kind of tranquility that feels worlds away from the city's hustle.

National Parks Along the Way: Perfect Stops for Your Motorhome Adventure

The USA is home to an incredible array of national parks, making it the ultimate destination for a motorhome, camping-car, or RV holiday. As you follow the 2026 FIFA World Cup action, take time to explore these iconic parks, each offering unique experiences and breathtaking scenery. Here are even more national parks to add to your itinerary:

- Arches National Park (Utah): Famous for its over 2,000 natural sandstone arches, this park is a haven for photographers and hikers. The dramatic red rock formations are best explored at sunrise or sunset for stunning views.
- Death Valley National Park (California/Nevada): Known as the hottest and driest national park in the USA, Death Valley offers surreal landscapes, including salt flats, sand dunes, and colorful canyons. It's a must-visit for those seeking adventure and unique photo opportunities.
- Biscayne National Park (Florida): Located near Miami, this park is 95% water, making it perfect for snorkeling, kayaking, and exploring tropical reefs. It's a serene escape into nature, just a short drive from the city.
- Great Smoky Mountains National Park (Tennessee/North Carolina): Renowned for its mist-covered mountains and diverse wildlife, this park is ideal for hiking, camping, and enjoying the beauty of the Appalachian region.
- Everglades National Park (Florida): A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Everglades is a unique ecosystem of wetlands, home to alligators, manatees, and countless bird species. Explore it by airboat or kayak for an unforgettable experience.
- Rocky Mountain National Park (Colorado): With towering peaks, alpine lakes, and abundant wildlife, this park is a paradise for outdoor enthusiasts. Drive the scenic Trail Ridge Road for panoramic views.
- Zion National Park (Utah): Known for its towering red cliffs and narrow slot canyons, Zion is a favorite for hikers and nature lovers. The Angels Landing trail offers a challenging but rewarding adventure.
- Yosemite National Park (California): Famous for its granite cliffs, waterfalls, and giant sequoias, Yosemite is a must-see for anyone visiting California. Don't miss iconic landmarks like El Capitan and Half Dome.
- Grand Teton National Park (Wyoming): Adjacent to Yellowstone, this park features stunning mountain landscapes, pristine lakes, and abundant wildlife. It's a perfect spot for hiking, fishing, and photography.
- Acadia National Park (Maine): Located on the Atlantic coast, Acadia offers rugged cliffs, forested trails, and scenic drives. It's a fantastic destination for those exploring the northeastern USA.

Motorhome vs. RV vs. Camping-Car

Let's clear up the lingo: in the USA, they call it an "RV" (Recreational Vehicle), but elsewhere, you might know it as a motorhome or camping-car. Whatever you choose to call it, you'll be riding in style, embracing an American pastime with the freedom to roam. And let's not forget the great debate over football and soccer. While the rest of the world passionately cheers for football, Americans stubbornly (and endearingly) stick with "soccer." You'll have plenty of time on the road to settle the argument over which term reigns supreme.

Tips for the Ultimate American World Cup Adventure

- Indulge in Americana: Stop at diners for milkshakes and burgers—nothing says "road trip" like comfort food.
- Celebrate World Cup Fever: Deck out your camping-car or RV in your team's colors and create your own little fan zone.
- Embrace the RV Culture: Share stories with fellow travelers at campgrounds—there's a camaraderie that makes you feel part of one big road-tripping family.
- Connect with Nature: Spend rest days in national parks to recharge before the next big game.

Practical tips for booking your motorhome rental holiday:

- Plan Ahead: Book your motorhome rental or RV rental early to secure the best options.
- Stay Connected: Use apps to find campgrounds and parking spots near stadiums.
- Pack Smart: Bring essentials like a portable grill, camping chairs, and a first-aid kit.
- Respect Nature: Follow Leave No Trace principles to preserve the beauty of national parks.
