Cincinnati, known as the “Queen City,” sits on the banks of the Ohio River and blends historic charm with modern attractions. Stroll through the lively Findlay Market, visit the Cincinnati Art Museum, or take in the skyline views from Devou Park across the river. Families will love the Cincinnati Zoo & Botanical Garden, one of the oldest in the country, while sports fans can catch a Reds baseball game at Great American Ball Park.

Within a one? to two?week motorhome journey, you can explore some of the Midwest’s most beautiful natural areas. Head east to Hocking Hills State Park for caves, waterfalls, and forest trails, or north to Caesar Creek State Park for hiking, boating, and sandy beaches. Just across the river in Kentucky, discover the rugged landscapes of Red River Gorge or the rolling hills of Daniel Boone National Forest. For a Great Lakes adventure, drive north to the shores of Lake Erie.

Seasonal highlights include Oktoberfest Zinzinnati each September, the largest Oktoberfest celebration in the United States, and the Cincinnati Music Festival in July, one of the nation’s premier R&B and soul events.

With RV parks and campgrounds throughout the region, Cincinnati is more than a departure point — it’s the gateway to Ohio, Kentucky, and unforgettable Midwest road trips.
