

The Mid Atlantic

Explore the Mid Atlantic by motorhome

This historical region of the USA, nestled between mountains and ocean, makes for an unforgettable motorhome holiday. CampingCar-Online/Rable Campervans suggests a list of places and parks to visit along this Mid Atlantic route.

Baltimore

Baltimore is a big city and the business city of north eastern USA. It is also a historical and cultural city, dating back over two centuries. Its historic centre and port have been renovated consolidating its cultural dynamism.

Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls, formed over tens of thousands of years to create a beautiful natural spectacle, is a popular tourists destination and one of the most visited sites in the USA. They are situated on the Canadian border. There are three falls, the two highest being in the USA: the American Falls and the Bridal Veil Falls.

Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh has been at the heart of American industry for over a century. It has changed over the years to become a better-equipped and more vibrant city, greener, and a real crossroads for north eastern USA.

Richmond

Richmond is close to the federal capital of the USA. Its rich history contributes to the appeal and dynamism of the city. Nearby, you can visit former battlefields of the Civil War.

Williamsburg

The renovation of many of the city's historical buildings and monuments has unveiled its rich history of nearly two centuries. Now the city is lives to the the rhythm of young America, making it a fascinating visit.

Independence National Historical Park

Situated in Philadelphia, this site brings together the most important historical events of the USA that aspired to its freedom and independence during the American Revolution. It includes The Liberty Bell, the National Constitution Center and Independence Hal, which is classified as a World Heritage Site.