Must-See Road Trips from New York

1. Discover New York City (Before You Hit the Road)

Spend a few days exploring Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens, and the Bronx before collecting your RV. Walk across the Brooklyn Bridge, visit the Met and the Guggenheim, and experience Times Square, Broadway, and Fifth Avenue.

(Note: motorhomes are not permitted on Manhattan island — plan to explore the city first, then begin your road trip.)

2. New England & Boston

Head north to discover Boston's historic streets, Harvard and MIT, and the charming villages of New England. In autumn, New Hampshire is famous for its spectacular fall foliage.

3. Washington D.C. & the Mid-Atlantic

Travel south to the U.S. capital to see the White House, the National Mall, and world-class museums. Along the way, explore Philadelphia's Liberty Bell and Independence Hall.

4. Niagara Falls & the Great Lakes

Head northwest to experience the power of Niagara Falls State Park, one of North America's most famous natural wonders. Extend your trip to explore the Great Lakes region.

5. Adirondack Park

Drive north into the Adirondack Park, the largest protected area in the United States mainland. From gentle nature trails to rugged peaks over 1,500 meters; with countless RV-friendly campgrounds, it's perfect for hiking, canoeing, and scenic drives.

? From city skylines to coastal villages and natural wonders, New York is the gateway to the East of the USA.
