Orlando is best known for its famous theme parks: Walt Disney World and Universal Studios. Don't miss a chance to visit them if you are with your children! There are also many attractive, tree-lined neighbourhoods and parks in the city, which add to much of its charm. We recommend a detour around the old suburb of the Church Street Station, Orlando's old train station. There are many camping sites around the city and near the theme parks.

Orlando is an excellent starting point if you want to travel the famous and magnificent Everglades route situated between the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic Ocean. You can also explore Fort Lauderdale and Miami, a multicultural city and a 'must-see' in Florida. Don't miss the Everglades National Park with its unusual subtropical fauna and flora. You can also visit Key West in your motorhome, crossing the Florida Keys and the cities of Islamorada, Marathon and Big Pine Key.

You will see that the American roads are well suited for motorhomes and offer pleasant driving conditions. You will easily find campsites along the way.
