Pittsburgh, known as the “City of Bridges,” is a dynamic destination where three rivers meet. Ride the historic Duquesne Incline for sweeping skyline views, stroll through Point State Park at the confluence of the rivers, or explore the lush Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens. The city also boasts world-class museums, including the Carnegie Museum of Natural History and the Andy Warhol Museum.

Within a one- to two-week motorhome journey, you can explore the rolling landscapes of western Pennsylvania and beyond. Hike the scenic trails of Ohiopyle State Park with its waterfalls and whitewater rapids, follow the Great Allegheny Passage toward the Appalachian Mountains, or head north to the shores of Lake Erie for beaches and vineyards. For a longer loop, drive east to the Allegheny National Forest, a haven of hiking, kayaking, and fall foliage.

Seasonal highlights include the Three Rivers Arts Festival each June, a 10-day celebration of music and creativity, and the Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix in July, the nation’s largest vintage street race held in Schenley Park.

With RV parks and campgrounds throughout the region, Pittsburgh is more than a departure point — it’s the gateway to the Appalachians, the Great Lakes, and unforgettable Mid-Atlantic road trips.
