Seattle, the largest city in Washington, has about 650 000 inhabitants. It is located south of Elliot Bay, between Puget Sound and Lake Washington and it is nicknamed the Emerald City, due to its many parks and hills. It is famous for the Space Needle Tower and there are a good number of museums, such as the Seattle Art Museum and the Museum of History and Industry. Visit the Seattle Aquarium, which offers a nice overview of the aquatic wildlife of Puget Sound. Also explore Pike Place Market, a great public market in Pioneer Square, the historic heart of the city.

In your motorhome you can explore the Pacific region and the northern Rockies from Seattle. You can also visit Olympic National Park (a true treasure), Mount Rainier National Park, Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks.

An unforgettable motorhome journey awaits in Seattle. You will see that the American roads are well suited for motorhomes and offer pleasant driving conditions. You will easily find campsites along the way.
