

Finland

Explore Finland by motorhome

Finland is famous for its many lakes connected by waterways and is also a country of countless forests (covering 2/3 of the surface) of spruces, birches, pines and firs, all waiting to be discovered by you aboard your motorhome. Experience the long days of sunlight during the entire month of June and don't forget a visit to Helsinki.