Admire Iceland in a motorhome

Northern lights, glaciers, dormant volcanoes: Iceland awakens the curiosity of travelers. With its green lands in summer and immaculate white in winter, this island offers you an ideal playground for a road trip in a motorhome, van or 4x4. Specialized in car rental abroad since 2001, CampingCar-Online helps you to prepare your trip.

Fall under the charm of Iceland

Authentic and natural destination, Iceland can be discovered perfectly by motorhome. You will see the treasures of the Golden Circle pass before your eyes: Geysir, Gullfoss waterfall and Thingvellir National Park and much more! The period from June to September is ideal to discover the country, but winter offers a unique opportunity to see the Northern Lights.

On the roads of Iceland by motorhome

Iceland is expensive, it is a fact! Renting a motorhome or a van will allow you to enjoy your trip without breaking your piggy bank. Wild by nature, Iceland allows camping everywhere in complete safety. A godsend for those who dream of sleeping in the heart of nature, far from everything. Victim of its success, Iceland attracts many travelers. It is essential to reserve your vehicle several months in advance.

Our advice? If a camper van is enough for those who want to go around the route 1, you will need a 4x4 for those who dream of going off the beaten track.
