

Italy

Under Italy's spell

Italy has an unparalleled cultural richness. Southern and northern Italy are quite different, each with their own regional characteristics, but both with the same warm hospitality. The islands of Sicily and Sardinia are also worth the trip aboard your motorhome.

You can discover the unique charm of each Italian region by following the itineraries we have prepared for you. A route from Turin will take you along the shores of the Italian lakes and further east to the steps of Verona, Parma and Pavia.

In the North, you can travel to Venice at the foot of the Dolomites.

Crossing the country from east to west, you can go from Naples to Puglia. Many other possibilities exist, such as a short route from Florence to Pisa, without forgetting beautiful Tuscany.
