Renting a van or motorhome will give you an unforgettable experience. In winter, the country lives in slow motion, but offers you a unique opportunity to see the Northern Lights and magical landscapes. The roads are perfectly equipped for driving a motorhome, but very winding. Stay alert!

Blending in with nature in a motorhome

You can spend the night in the middle of nature, as long as you stay more than 300 meters away from the houses and respect nature. Norway is also full of campsites. You will be spoiled for choice. Moreover, as this Scandinavian country is an expensive destination, you will save a lot of money by renting a motorhome or a van. All you have to do is soak up the peaceful atmosphere of the country and reconnect with the essential: nature.
