Missoula, surrounded by five mountain ranges and three rivers, is a lively university town with a strong outdoor spirit. Stroll through the historic downtown, visit the Smokejumper Visitor Center to learn about Montana's firefighting heritage, or enjoy the vibrant Missoula Farmers Market. The city is also home to cultural gems like the Missoula Art Museum and the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation Visitor Center.

Within a one? to two?week motorhome journey, you can explore some of the most iconic landscapes in the American West. Head north to Glacier National Park for alpine lakes and the famous Going?to?the?Sun Road, or south to Yellowstone National Park, where geysers and wildlife await. Closer to town, hike the trails of the Rattlesnake National Recreation Area, paddle the Clark Fork River, or climb Mount Sentinel for sweeping views over the valley.

Seasonal highlights include the Big Sky Documentary Film Festival each February, showcasing international films, and the International Wildlife Film Festival in spring, celebrating nature and conservation through cinema.

With RV parks and campgrounds throughout the region, Missoula is more than a departure point — it's the gateway to Montana's wilderness, national parks, and unforgettable road trips.
